2. The Customer agrees to purchase and have installed the Goods specified in the form of an order.
3. The customer agrees to the full liability of the balance outlined whether acting independently or as a 3rd party representative on the day of installation.
4. Orders are individually manufactured, and any Goods not used in their intended location in the Customer's premises cannot be credited against the contract price.
5. Advertising materials such as samples, drawings, photos, computer generated images, sketches, brochures are there to provide an illustrative or approximate idea of the Goods shown or described. They do not form part of the contract nor do they have any contractual force.
6. All payment schedules, plans and agreements are to be outlined on the face of the contract.
7. The company will endeavour to provide a proposed start date and aim to keep to this however in all circumstances time is not of the essence. The priority will always remain with ensuring custom made products pass through quality control in the correct condition.
8. Bespoke products from time to time may be delayed due to circumstances out of the control of the Company. The company does not accept or cover any claims arising from any consequential loss during these periods.
9. The company do not accept any liability for any timescales provided by 3rd party suppliers.
10. Unless a finance option has been selected the total outstanding balance is payable immediately after the Goods have been properly installed or delivered in accordance with the terms of the contract and in line with manufacturers guidelines.
11. In the absence of an approved finance agreement final payment is to be made to the installer in cash, card, or balance transfer.
12. This order is accepted by the Company subject to a final technical survey, which will be carried out in daylight hours.
13. The Company reserves the right to cancel this order if the surveyor is not entirely happy that the Company can fulfil its obligations to the Customer within the contract price. In this event, any deposit, or monies in respect of the contract will be refunded in full by the Company.
14. The Customer hereby acknowledges that the items and diagrams in this contract have been checked and are correct.
15. The ownership of the Goods shall remain with the Company which reserves the right to possession and to dispose of the goods until such time that payment has been received in full by the Company and cleared through the Company's bank account.
16. Access to the premises to recover goods owned by the company is hereby agreed to be provided at any time and without restriction, obstruction or prior notice.
17. The company will endeavour to provide the best possible finish, however cannot always guarantee a smooth sealant finish due to existing building fabrics.

18. The customer acknowledges that silicone sealant is used to create a weather resistant seal and aesthetics are considered but will not be the main aim during application.
19. The Customer agrees to permit access to the Company, its servants, sub-contractors and workmen to the installation address at all reasonable times in order that the Company may carry out the works scheduled.
20. If, within 7 days of being advised that the Company is ready to install, the Customer has not agreed to an installation date, the remaining balance becomes payable.
21. The Customer will provide the free use of a reasonable amount of water and electricity.
22. The Company will take all reasonable care of the Customer's property when carrying out the work but cannot accept liability for damage or re-decoration.
23. The contract price does not include for the repair or replacement of any rotten timber, defective lintels, hidden services, or hazardous materials such as asbestos found during the course of carrying out the works or for the repair otherwise of any other structural defects unless such work is specified in the schedule of work. Any such work found to be necessary will be brought to the attention of the Customer and will be the subject of a separate quotation and extended time frame.
24. The Company does not undertake to move services, fixtures or fittings which are ancillary to the basic structure of the property, e.g. radiators, pipes, electricity, telephone or television cables and the Customer shall remove all household fixtures, including curtains, nets, and blinds, shutters, before the installation is due to commence. Any valuables/damageable goods should be removed.
25. The Company does not take any responsibility for damage caused to any of the above if not removed by the Customer whilst work is executed. The Company reserves the right to charge for wasted time if it is unable to carry out work due to site specific restrictions/conditions.
26. No undertaking can be given that the Customer's existing doors, windows and/or frames can be removed to be fit for re-use or any other purpose and they will be removed from the site and disposed of unless the Customer instructs the installer to leave them.
27. Every effort will be made to protect and clean working areas as best as practicable, but the Company cannot be held responsible for small fragments /splinters/ particles, which may still be present.
28. The Company reserves the right to make minor variations in the specification of any of its products at its discretion and without prior notice to the Customer, in keeping with the Company's policy of continuous development and improvement.
29. Any product guarantee will come into effect immediately upon completion of the works if the full price has been received (less any appropriately agreed amount in the event of defects) by the Company on the due date.
30. Failure to pay on time and in full may void any warranty.
31. Where applicable building control compliance will be registered directly upon contract completion providing full payment has been received. Certificates can take 4-6 weeks to be processed.
32. The customer acknowledges that condensation is dependent on several variable factors. The Company does not guarantee that its products eliminate or even reduce the incidence of condensation.
33. The Customer should ensure that any representation or promise made before or at the time of signature to the contract not included in the printed form of the contract is added in writing on the face of the contract and is signed by both the Customer and the Company or its agent. In this way, there will be no doubt as to the terms of the representation or promise.
